SWEPT BY A DELUGE

The Sioux Valley Converted Into a Great Lake.

NUMEROUS TOWNS INUNDATED.

Several Lives Lost and Untold Damage Done to Houses, Barns and Other Buildings—Stock Drowned and Crops Entirely Destroyed—Wires Down and Details Meager.

SIoux CITY, Ia., June 25.—The recent heavy rains which have visited the northwest during the past few days have converted the Sioux valley into a great lake of water. The Sioux valley is one of the most fertile sections in this region of the country, and is thickly settled, numerous towns being scattered throughout its length.

At this writing it is impossible to estimate the damage, but it will run up into the hundreds of thousands of dollars. The great loss arises from the sweeping away of houses, barns and cattle, besides the tremendous loss to the crops, great fields of wheat and corn being totally destroyed.

Although the flood came rather suddenly the people in the valley were not taken by surprise, as riders were immediately dispatched to carry the warning. Had the flood occurred in the night there would doubtless have been great loss of life.

The overflowing of the banks of the Little Sioux and Floyd rivers was the primary cause of the flood. This was supplemented by a cloudburst at Le Mars, Ia. The combination was an irresistible one, and it was not long before people in the valley were fleeing to places of safety, in many instances driving their cattle before them.

It is now known though that six persons met their death in the country around about Correctionville, and the number is reported increased to eight.

Houses, barns and outhouses are reported flowing in the Little Sioux past Cherokee. No one knows where they come from, but are presumed to be from Southland. No loss of life is reported from the two country. Aurelia reports from the top of four feet of water in the streets. The cellars flooded, and thousands of dollars' worth of merchandise and household goods are destroyed.

The wagon bridge over the Sioux, south of the town, went out about 10 o'clock Tuesday night. This was followed by all the houses on the flat in that part of town, numbering over 100. The number of people driven from their homes was between 1,200 and 1,500. The river continued to rise until 3 o'clock, at that time being ten feet higher than was ever known. Every bridge across the Sioux river, both wagon and railroad, are gone between here and Onawa, and probably every bridge in Cherokee county on the Sioux river.

At Storm Lake the merchants were unable to get into their stores on account of the water. All passenger and freight traffic west of Aurelia has been abandoned. The railroad bridge is lodged in the river half a mile below town. Material is being moved rapidly by the railroad company to repair the damage. The superintendent of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha telegraphs that all of the bridges on his line are gone from Sheldon to Le Mars.

The flood wave did not reach Sioux City until the morning. It did not come with a rush, but gradually overflowed the banks of the Floyd and extended over to Leeds, a manufacturing suburb. Several of the big factories were submerged and the suburb now is under about two feet of water.

The Illinois Central seems to have fared worse from the storm. The most damage was done at Cherokee, and through the valley of the Little Sioux river, which is crossed by the Illinois Central at Cherokee. At Cherokee forty houses and barns on the river bottom were swept away and much stock drowned.

Heavy Storm in Kansas.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 26.—At 4 o'clock yesterday morning the heaviest rain-storm of the season set in at this place and continued until noon. The Santa Fe and Kansas Pacific roads are washed out between here and Lawrence and all westbound trains are laid up at Lawrence waiting until the track is repaired. Washouts have also occurred at Williamstown, on the Union Pacific and on the Santa Fe. The damage to the crops will be heavy.

Cloudburst in Tennessee.

KNOXVILLE, June 26.—A cloudburst occurred in Cherokee county yesterday, doing much damage to crops, etc. Harvey Agnew and Jacob Newton, moonshiners, were struck by the lightning and instantly killed.

Soldiers Ordered Out.

LAS VEGAS, June 26.—Fort Wingate advises are that the Navajo reservation trouble is increasing. A courier has been sent to command of "D" troop on the reservation calling for aid by Lieutenant Brett, who was sent to Keene canon, near Fort Defiance, to suppress the depredations of the hostile "H" troop that has left for the scene.

Fast Rowing on the Thames.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 26.—The Cornell university crew covered themselves with glory yesterday afternoon by winning the race from the University of Pennsylvania and Columbia crews, in the fast time of 14 m. 25 1-2 s., thereby chopping off 15 1-2 s. of the best previous time made on the Thames river course by any of the college crews.

BUFFALO, June 26.—John Felton, the originator of the idea of selling newspapers and books on railroad trains, died at his residence in this city yesterday. Mr. Felton was born in Barre, Mass., sixty-seven years ago.

OHIO'S MILITARY MUDDLE.

The Adjutant General Will Fire Colonel Smith if He Don't Resign.

CINCINNATI, June 26.—In an interview with a reporter Colonel W. B. Smith, of the First regiment, O. N. G., declares that he will not resign and will resist any effort to put him out. He will dispute the order of his superior—the governor and adjutant general—who have demanded his resignation as well as those of all the regimental commissioned officers.

Smith has engaged ex-Prosecutor Pugh to fight his legal battle for him. He charged the court of inquiry with bulldozing him out of his rights in refusing to let him call witnesses at the trial.

What the Adjutant General Will Do.

COLUMBUS, O., June 26.—After reading the above dispatch Adjutant General Dill said that if Smith did not resign at the expiration of the five days allowed him on the recommendation of the court of inquiry he would be dismissed, and cited Section 3,051 as his authority. That section provides that "an officer may be discharged by the commander-in-chief upon the report of a court of inquiry, or to carry out the sentence of a court-martial."

Election Ordered.

COLUMBUS, O., June 26.—Orders have been issued by Adjutant General Dill for the election of a lieutenant colonel of the First regiment light artillery, Vice Edmund C. Brush promoted to colonel. Major Duma, of Cincinnati, will probably be selected.

EXPLODING ALCOHOL.

NEW YORK, June 26.—By the explosion of a barrel of alcohol, in the basement of the Columbia college, yesterday, Dr. John T. Northrop, an instructor in zoology, and two assistants, William Simpson and Thomas Tighe, were seriously burned. Dr. Northrop's injuries are so serious that there is danger of death resulting.

Having reason to transfer the alcohol from the barrel to small jars, Dr. Northrop called in the aid of William Simpson, the college janitor, and of Thomas Tighe, and, taking a light the three went to the basement. As soon as the barrel was opened the contents became ignited and an explosion followed. Dr. Northrop rushed from the cellar with his clothing ablaze. Some workmen near by extinguished the flames by tearing off the doctor's clothing and with buckets of water, but not before he had been frightfully burned about the face, arms and legs. He was taken to the Presbyterian hospital, where his injuries were pronounced exceedingly dangerous. The fire did slight damage.

Died of Brutal Treatment.

MONETON, N. B., June 26.—On Friday last a 9-year-old girl, Ida Young, who had been adopted by one Jack Viennu, a Frenchman, in Bathurst, in Gloucester county, was found by the roadside in a dying condition. She had been beaten in a terrible manner and was bruised from head to foot. She said Mrs. Viennu had beaten her because she was sick and had then sent her to her former home. The girl died on Tuesday night, after making a statement of the treatment she had received.

Elliott's Defense.

COLUMBUS, O., June 26.—Joe Fossett, formerly Governor Foraker's messenger, testified for the defense in the Elliott murder trial. He said that Osborn had declared in conversation about Elliott: "I'll either make the cowardly shoot me or I'll shoot him." This was the Saturday before the tragedy.

J. J. Adams testified that Osborn had said in reply to a joking remark about Elliott the morning of the shooting: "Let him come, d—n him: I'm waiting for him."

New York Firm Assigns.

NEW YORK, June 26.—G. W. Stetson & Company, 69 Wall street, made an assignment yesterday afternoon. The firm was organized in 1880, and is engaged in the iron and railway supply business. The liabilities of the firm are about $100,000, and they say they will be able to pay in full. The failure is assigned to the tightness of the money market and inability to make collections. Mr. Stetson is a brother of Grover Cleveland's law partner.

Married at Noon.

BAR HARBOR, Me., June 26.—Ellington Dorr, Jr., of Boston, was married at noon yesterday at Sorrento, to Mrs. Elizabeth G. Hancock, nee Gwynne, of New York, daughter-in-law of General Hancock. The Right Rev. John McCaw Foster, of Bangor, performed the ceremony, which occurred in the Episcopal chapel. Owing to the recent death of the father of the bride the wedding was quiet, only a few friends being present.

Boat and Shoe Failure.

BOSTON, June 26.—The main house of Emil Marquez & Company, wholesale boot and shoe dealers, who assigned yesterday, is in New Orleans and the Boston store has been simply the purchasing headquarters. The firm has a long record as a substantial and conservative house, and its failure was a surprise to the trade. The liabilities are approximately estimated at $300,000 or $400,000, but no exhibit of the firm's affairs have been prepared.

Livery Stable Burned.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., June 26.—A livery stable, owned by L. R. Greene, hotel keeper at Adams Center, this county, was burned this morning. A number of carriages were destroyed, and five horses were burned to death.

A $10,000 Incendiary Fire.

NEW BREMEN, O., June 26.—The house and barn of John Stern, living near town, was burned yesterday. The fire was of incendiary origin. The loss is $10,000; insurance $800.

ADMIRAL M'CANN,

Commander of the United States Flagship Baltimore.

REPORTS TO WASHINGTON.

Military and Naval Operations in the Chilean War—Revolutionary Squadron Gone South—A Battle on the Waters. Torpedo Boat Sunk—Government Holdings Burned—Where Our Own War Vessels Are.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—The following letter has been received at the navy department from Admiral McCallum, United States flagship Baltimore, dated at Iquique, Chili, May 25:

There have been no military or naval operations of importance in the northern provinces recently. Admiral Rothman, who keeps himself well informed concerning events by his cruisers moving up and down the coast, writing from Coquimbo on the 13th inst., informed me that all the revolutionary squadron had gone north from Caldera, and that only 700 or 800 men were left to garrison Caldera and Copiapo; that the Hunscar had grounded in Caldera bay during the night, but had succeeded in getting afloat again.

Since the loss of the Blanco Encalada most of the insurgent's forces are concentrating about the nitrate ports. The only efficient vessels remaining to the insurgents are the Hunscar and Esmeralda (the latter last heard of at Acapulco) and the Almirante Cochrane; the remainder is made up of a few old gun-boats and armed transports, the broken down and worn out remains of the Chilean navy. There is, therefore, little or no probability of a demonstration by water against Valparaiso or other southern ports by the revolutionary fleets, as I have previously reported to the department, but on the contrary the government cruiser and torpedo cruisers Almirante Lynch and Almirante Condell, and the armed transport Imperial, keep the insurgent vessels in motion and the nitrate ports in a constant state of alarm by threatening attacks.

Firing at Sea.

Early on the morning of the 17th of May the Condell appeared off this port, overhauled a vessel in the offing, and cruised about for some time, when the Almirante Cochrane, which had returned to the anchorage after cruising outside all night, got up steam and went in pursuit, soon after which the Condell appeared off Pisagua, where two gunboats also joined in the pursuit. Again on the 19th, the Imperial appeared off this port just before dark and opened a rapid fire; the subject of the firing could not be seen, as no other vessels were in sight in the offing. The Cochrane and the gunboat O'Higgins stood out towards the Imperial, after which firing was again heard until a late hour, but with what results could not be learned.

Torpedo Boat Sunk.

Just before these vessels went in pursuit of the Imperial, about 6:15 p. m., one of their torpedo launches, between the O'Higgins and this ship, but nearer the former, was accidentally blown up by its own torpedo and sank immediately, drowning two and mortally wounding four of her crew of eight men. One of the dead bodies was brought alongside the Baltimore in a gig, and was soon after sent on shore.

Government Buildings Burned.

Vessels on the Move.

On the 25th the Cochrane, Magallanes, Amazonas and a small collier left Iquique and stood to the southward, to protect that locality. The speed of the Condell and Imperial is such that they easily elude pursuit and may turn up most unexpectedly at any port.

Pensacola Ordered to Arica.

The Pensacola arrived at Iquique on the morning of the 20th of May, four days from Valparaiso, and on the 23d she was ordered to coal and proceed to Arica.

AT THE POINT OF A PISTOL.

A Runaway Couple Overtaken and Compelled to Return.

SARATOGA, June 26.—Frank Andrews, a commercial traveler, having a wife and child in Albany, has been paying attention to the 17-year-old daughter of Reuben Barnett, a prominent livery stable man here, for a year or more, representing himself to be a widower. The girl wanted to marry him and her parents gave a very reluctant consent. The father, on going to Albany, Wednesday, to satisfy himself that all was right, met Andrews' wife, learned the truth and hurried back to Saratoga.

In the meantime Andrews and the girl had boarded a train and started north. They were tracked by telegraph and followed by the girl's 22-year-old brother. He overtook the pair at White Hall yesterday morning and compelled Andrews to return with him at the point of a pistol. The father of the girl was at the depot on the arrival of the train yesterday evening and was barely prevented from shooting Andrews. Andrews is in jail.

United States Senator Arrested.

FREERHOLD, N. J., June 26.—Mayor Wainwright yesterday caused the arrest of United States Senator Blodgett, superintendent of the New York and Long Branch road, on the charge of violating an ordinance which compels his road to erect gates at street crossings. The hearing was adjourned one week. The authorities will also proceed against the directors of the company.

Iron Men Strike.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., June 26.—Several hundred men at the iron furnaces struck Wednesday because the owners of the plant refused to pay them according to the Pittsburg scale.

COLOMBIA AT CHICAGO.

Many Industries of That Country to Be Exhibited at the World's Fair.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Lieutenant Lemly, the special commissioner to Colombia, in the interest of the Chicago exposition, reports that among other attractions to be sent from that country will be representatives of the following industries: The native hemmen sandals and weavers of the so-called Panama hats; feather workers will prepare very artistic lanterns, coats-of-arms, birds, flowers and portraits in these delicate materials. Skilful wood carvers, who are said to produce much finer work than the Swiss, will exhibit their craft at the fair, sometimes carving an entire group of figures, such as a bull fight, from a single block of wood.

There will be carvers of cocoanuts, who produce excellent likenesses and silhouettes. Deft natives will trim hammocks most curiously with the plumage of tropical birds. Makers of native musical instruments, and skilful workers in the woods of their own districts will ply their accustomed industries on the grounds.

Senor Jose Marie Castro, a specialist in the latter field, and said to be the best in Colombia, has agreed to join the party which is to attend the exposition.

There will also be a band of Colombian students, playing bandolas, tripples, chuchos and other peculiar native instruments in picturesque native costumes.

INDIANA HERMIT.

He Allows His Brother to Go to a County Asylum While He Is Rich.

MARTINSVILLE, June 26.—William and Allen Turner, brothers, live in Adams township, this county. William owns a fine farm, and has money on hand. His life has been spent as a hermit, living in a little log hut in a deep ravine, known as Mud Creek valley. It is a gloomy abode. Here he has cooked, washed and slept, and probably would never have been heard of many miles from home, had he not permitted his brother Allen, who has been living with him, and who has been sick for several weeks, to be removed to the county asylum, that he might receive proper attention.

William is 60 years old, and Allen 65. William was never known to cast a ballot, nor attend church for worship, nor to visit his neighbors, and he seldom talks unless compelled to, nor does he care to be bothered with any one's presence in his hut.

INDIAN UPRISING RUMORS.

They Are Not Believed at the War Department in Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—No information in regard to the Indian trouble in Arizona has been received at the war department yesterday and it is generally believed here that no uprising of any consequence has taken place. Little is known of the Azeba Indians, as they have been a very quiet and peaceable tribe, giving the government little or no trouble.

General McCook has been telegraphed to take any steps necessary to prevent an uprising, and he has ordered troops to the reservation where the trouble is reported. Should the situation become dangerous, he would certainly inform the war department at once, and from his silence the department draws the conclusion that the reported trouble is not of a serious nature.

Accident in a Coal Shaft.

ST. LOUIS, June 26.—A dispatch from Hamilton, Mo., says: An accident occurred at the shaft of the Caldwell Coal company's mine near this city yesterday, in which one man lost his life and four others received serious, if not fatal injuries. The men were propping up the roof when a stone weighing a ton and a half fell, killing Paul Bloise instantly; crushing Robert Stewart's back, breast, right arm; almost scalding Frank Dooley, and crushing John Lewis and William Hall more or less severely.

Little Girl Fatally Burned.

CINCINNATI, June 26.—Flora Tudor, aged 10, while attempting to fill a gasoline tank while the stove was lighted, was fatally burned by an explosion of the fluid. The accident occurred in Columbia, a Cincinnati suburb.

Drew Still Under Suspension.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Comptroller Lacey said to-day that Bank Examiner Drew was still under suspension. Investigations now in progress, he said, would determine his future course in Mr. Drew's case.

Fireman Instantly Killed.

WILMINGTON, Del., June 26.—John Coleman, aged 30, a member of the Liberty fire company, was instantly killed yesterday evening by being thrown from one of the engine horses he was riding.

Epidemic of Typhoid Fever.

PROVIDENCE, June 26.—Typhoid fever is raging at Valley Falls, six miles north of here. Thirty-six persons are down with the disease. The cause of the epidemic has been traced to a contaminated well.

Rolling Mills Damaged by Fire.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 26.—Fire damaged the finishing department of the Alabama rolling mills at Gates City yesterday to the extent of $30,000. Two hundred hands are thrown out of work.

Killed by an Electric Car.

SCRANTON, Pa., June 26.—The 3-year-old daughter of Albert Henry was run over and killed by an electric street car yesterday afternoon. Her head was almost severed from her body.

Mother and Child Killed.

NORFOLK, Va., June 26.—Mrs. Jones, while sitting in a Queen Anne cottage with a child on her lap, was struck by lightning yesterday, and both were instantly killed.

The farmers never enjoyed finer weather for harvesting. If they had had the ordering of it themselves, it could not have suited them better.

The People's party have opened the campaign in this State. The leaders ought to get some man as standard-bearer besides the deposed President of the Farmers' Alliance.

The Louisville Times, which belongs to the Louisville crowd, is beginning to berate and abuse Senator Blackburn, simply because he has come out in favor of the new Constitution. Still they talk of conducting the campaign on a "high plain."

Dr. FRAZEE is a Democrat and a gentleman too well known in Mason County to require an introduction from us. He has no opposition from his party and will therefore be nominated by acclamation and elected by a handsome majority next August.—Dover News.

If the Winchester Democrat is correct, some Maysville parties have been writing for information with a view to starting a furniture factory there. If any one is thinking of starting a factory of that character, he can't find a better location for it than right here in this city.

BROTHER WELDON, of the Augusta Indicator, is pretty busy with his Senatorial fight, but he took time this week and got out a handsome industrial edition of his paper. It contains a "write-up" not only of Augusta but of Bracken, and gives "a very elaborate pencil picture of men and affairs" in that county. It is one the neatest and brightest industrial editions that has reached this office.

EVERY tax-payer in Kentucky is interested in the development of the mineral and timber resources of the mountain regions. Counties that are now "pauper," if developed, would pay into the State Treasury revenues greatly in excess of what they draw from it. There is a widespread belief that the adoption of the new Constitution would put an end to the building of railroads, the opening of mines and the constructing of furnaces in Eastern Kentucky, and that is why the mountains are going to plunk down a heavy majority against it.—Louisville Times.

In other words you want a Constitution that will enable counties that are already "pauper" counties to vote big subscriptions to railway corporations. That doesn't seem a very good idea.

THE Louisville Courier-Journal is doing some very unwise and foolish things these days. Its issue Thursday contains the following:

The Lexington Leader, the principal organ of the Republican party in Kentucky, is taking the lead in the fight for the adoption of the new Constitution. The Leader always knows what is best for his party, and is a valiant fighter for any party advantage. Like Collector Scott, it realizes that the new Constitution contains provisions that will work to the advantage of the Republican party.

This is the first intimation we have seen or heard that the new Constitution would benefit the Republican party any more than any other party.

The Courier-Journal is the great Democratic paper of the State. The Constitutional convention was composed of 84 Democrats to 16 Republicans, and now the C.-J. places itself before the people in the attitude of charging this body of Democrats with framing a Constitution for the benefit of the Republican party.

Will the C.-J. please point out those sections of the proposed new organic law which will especially benefit the G. O. P.? Assertions won't count. If our distinguished contemporary fails to reply to the above we shall be forced to believe it is simply resorting to a despicable trick to solidify the Democrats of the State against the new Constitution.

LIGHT seems to be breaking in on the New York Tribune. In a recent issue it had the following:

"The Tribune will frankly say that in a short paragraph in its editorial columns of April 21 a statement was made that the production of tin plate in this country had been so large as to compel the Welsh Trust to shut down. That assertion was a mistake, and should never have been made. No one regrets more than the Tribune that an inaccurate item of that kind should have been printed in its columns."

These great Republican journals are getting badly mixed up and rattled on this tin-plate business of late. They have been making lots of tin, on paper, in this country for weeks, but the Commercial Gazette a few days ago published an item that the contract has just been let for the first factory (tin-plate) in this country. You need not set this first factory down as a fixed fact.

Dealers in Leaf Tobacco.

Dealers in leaf tobacco should remember that under the changed conditions they are compelled to register July 1st, even though they registered May 1st, as under the new law the registration must be done July 1st of every year, and failure to register will subject them to a fine of $50, and they must also conspicuously display the certificate of registration issued to them.

Debate at Dover.

The debate to be held at Dover between Rev. J. B. Moody, of the Baptist Church, and Rev. J. S. Sweeney, of the Christian Church, will not take place. Rev. Sweeney has written a letter to parties here, and positively refuses to meet Mr. Moody. In all probability Rev. C. S. Lucas, of Maysville, will meet Mr. Moody in the polemical arena at Dover some time in August.—Dover News.

Notice.

We offer a lot at Melbourne, Ky., on C. and O. R. R., 25 minutes ride from depot and nearly opposite Coney Island; size, 40x125 feet, for $125.00 on payment of $1.00 down and $1.00 per week. Now is your chance to invest in a rapidly growing suburban town. For plats and information, address W. M. Brooke, 75 W. Third street, Cincinnati, O. 26d&wt

LEWIS C. PEARCE.

A Former Citizen of Maysville Passes Away at Covington.

News was received here yesterday of the death of Mr. Lewis C. Pearce at his home in Covington. He passed away the evening before, at the age of eighty-one years.

Deceased was born in Fleming County, but spent part of his life in this city. For the past twenty-five years he had resided at Covington. The Commonwealth says: "He was a very successful business man, accumulating a handsome competency, and enjoying to the fullest the confidence of his associates. He was a kind and indulgent father and retained, until a comparative recent period, his physical and mental vigor. He was a man of fine presence, fond of home and children, intelligent, and conversant with public men and affairs. He leaves three daughters and two sons, Mrs. L. S. Matthews and Mrs. Thos. Porter, of this city; Mrs. Worthington Robinson, of Louisville; Mr. Samuel Pearce, Cincinnati, and Mr. Jas. Pearce, of Kansas City. The remains will be taken to Maysville, where the interment will be had Saturday. The funeral services will be held Friday afternoon."

Deceased was a half brother of Mr. Charles B. Pearce, of this city, and leaves many other relatives in Maysville. The remains will be brought here on the 10 o'clock train to-morrow morning, for interment. Burial private.

Here and There.

Mr. James Osborne, County Attorney of Robertson County, was in town yesterday.

RETSON MINING SALT COMPANY'S

ROCK LUMP SALT FOR CATTLE

TO FARMERS, STOCK-RAISERS and OTHERS:

It is not generally known that the use of common loose salt for cattle, horses, sheep and hogs, is injurious to them, but such, however, is the fact. Their nature requires only so much salt as will be absorbed by the saliva. By the ordinary method of salting, more or less of the loose salt is carried undissolved into the stomach, causing irritation to the membranes and coating. In many well authenticated instances the death of sheep, and attacks of colic and other difficulties in horses and cows have been traced to this cause. It is very desirable, therefore, that some method of salting stock be employed. The most suitable form of salt for this purpose is furnished by nature in the Rock or Mineral salt, and the best possible method of supplying it to stock is to place lumps of it in the mangers and other places where it can be easily reached when required by them. It goes four times as far as common salt, and is cheaper at any reasonable price. Any stock will do 20 per cent. better by using our Rock salt. They do not have that terrible thirsting for water caused by using common salt, which contains large quantities of lime and magnesia, our salt being the only salt known free from these impurities.

TWENTY-SIXTH

Annual Commencement of the Academy of the Visitation.

Programme of the Closing Exercises
 for the Year 1890-91.

On Thursday morning, for the twenty-sixth time, the Academy of the Visitation was filled with the bright faces and joyous music of commencement day.

The stage was exquisitely decorated with cut flowers and potted plants and at windows and doors were dainty draperies of lace. At each side of the stage were handsome marble statues, half hidden by palms and foliage plants grouped at the base.

To the left of Rt. Rev. Bishop Maes was the stand of prize-books, and the gold medals suspended by long ribbons. At the base of the table was a mass of exquisite flowers, which were presented during the exercises to various rosebuds in the garland of girls.

The address to Rt. Rev. Bishop Maes by Miss Georgie Dobyns was given with the grace that always marks the efforts of this little elocutionist. The honors of the academy were next conferred on a number of the young ladies and a gold medal presented by Rev. George Bealer to Miss Lillie May Wardle, a little miss of ten years, for deportment, scholarship and unflinching attendance for three years.

The instrumental quartette by Misses O'Donnell, Bayless, Donella, O'Connor, Dodson, Hynes, Cox and Connor, played on two pianos, was a masterly effort, played in faultless time. The choruses were excellent, as also the mandolin quartette of Misses O'Donnell, O'Mara, Hynes and Connor, accompanied on the guitar by Misses O'Donnell, Bayless and Donella, and on violin by Miss Frazee. The mandolin music was especially enjoyed and reflected much credit on the young ladies and their talented and accomplished teacher, Miss Eagan, who is not alone a skillful musician, mistress of many instruments, but the gifted possessor of unusual power to impart her knowledge to pupils, which their steady and marked advancement attests. The Sisters are to be congratulated on securing for next year the services of this gifted lady.

The instrumental solos of Misses Hynes, Cox, Dodson and Bayless were thoroughly enjoyed, as was also the beautiful vocal solo of Miss Agnes O'Donnell, which was exquisitely sung, accompanied by Miss O'Donnell; violin obligato, Miss Frazee, whose delightful music added much to the morning's enjoyment. The "First Te Deum," recited by Miss Mary Cox, was one of the most delightful numbers and was especially admired. The charming entertainment closed with a character song admirably presented by Misses Bayless and Kane and dance chorons by the minims. Besides the medals mentioned the following were awarded: Christian doctrine, Miss Ragland; grammar, Miss Hynes and Miss Cox; composition, Miss Hattie Dobyns; spelling, Miss Lizzie Wood.

A great many handsome books were given as prizes, among them premiums for mending to the Misses Bayless, and for darning to Miss McCormick, assurances that the good Sisters are in every department untiring in their efforts. By their skill and unceasing endeavors they have made of this school an academy in the highest sense. Ladies of the highest culture themselves, they spare no pains in their able management to give their pupils every advantage, and Maysville may well be proud of her convent school.

ERION BROS. were awarded the contract for erecting the floral hall at the Maysville fair grounds.

THE Bourbon News says: "A party of New York men have been going through the counties of Scott, Bourbon and Clark during the past week buying up all the good export cattle they could find. The price reported paid was 5½ cents per pound."

THOMAS DAUGHERTY was run over and killed by an electric street car at Lexington. The Maysville Railway Company should caution their motor men to exercise the greatest care in running through the busy portion of the city. It might prevent an accident similar to the one at Lexington.

MARSH, the Keystone Bank defaulter, of Philadelphia, is said to have spent a few days at Ironton recently. He registered at the hotel under the name of Brown. He was fidgety in his inquiries about the quickest way to reach Nashville or Memphis. Shortly after his departure for Ashland, the secret service men arrived on the trail and the hotel people identified a picture as that of Marsh.

TOM TUREMAN DROWNED.
 Mr. J. James Wood received a telegram this morning stating that Thomas Tureman, a cousin of his wife, was drowned last night while out with a boating party. There were five people in the party, and they were all drowned. Their skill was run over by the towboat Frank Gilmore.

Tureman was a salesman for the Banner Leaf Tobacco Company and was intimately acquainted with the cigar and tobacco dealers of Maysville. He spent several days here a few weeks ago. The accident occurred at Cincinnati.

BIG STRIKE IN PARIS

Six Thousand Bakers Suddenly Stop Work.

RIOTING SHORTLY FOLLOWS.

Several People Seriously Injured in a Conflict Between the Strikers and the Police—Parade of the Strikers. The German Government and the Lottery Question—Other Foreign News.

PARIS, June 26.—Strikes seem to be epidemic in the French capital at this time. At a meeting of 6,000 bakers in this city yesterday a resolution was adopted ordering an immediate strike of the craft against the continuance of the system of registry offices.

Immediately upon the adoption of the resolution the strikers took to the streets, where they formed in procession for the purpose, as they declared, of marching upon the Labor exchange. The police ordered them to break ranks and proceed as individuals, but the parade refused and resisted the police. A struggle ensued, and re-enforcements having arrived the police dispersed the rioters after a number of the combatants on both sides had been hurt. Several arrests were made.

The butchers of the city now announce that they are determined to strike for the amelioration and abolition of wrongs which they claim afflict their journeymen. The grocers, too, at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, started Paris by joining the striking bakers and butchers in the movement for shorter hours and more money.

The situation is a remarkable one, and one which in Paris, in times past, could hardly have had any other result than the appearance of the omnibus barricade. Nothing of that kind is looked for under the present dispensation, however. All classes seem to feel satisfied that the municipal and federal authorities will co-operate in bringing about a peaceful and satisfactory settlement of the whole trouble. The idea that the French government will detail soldiers to take the places of the striking bakers, butchers, grocers or candlestick-makers, is in the highest degree improbable.

This view is entirely borne out by the fact that at a meeting of the council of ministers held yesterday afternoon to consider the situation created by the tripartite strike, not the slightest reference was made to the employment of the national forces in the kneading of dough, the manipulation of the toothsome joint, or the disposal, at a reasonable profit of the vigorous onion and succulent cabbage. On the contrary, it was decided that in the event of the strike extending, master bakers, butchers, grocers and others who enjoy the privileges and emoluments attaching to the right to sell their wares to the public of Paris must take such measures as will guarantee a supply of food sufficient to protect the people of the great city against possible hardship.

This would certainly seem to indicate the government is determined to confine itself to the policy of protecting the people as a whole. In fact, there has been but one recent instance where a government lent its soldiers to take the places of striking workmen, and, curiously enough, the soldiers on that occasion were detailed to act as bakers.

This, however, happened in Vienna, under the strongest of monarchical governments.

OPPOSED TO A LOTTERY

To Raise 8,000,000 Marks to Suppress the Slave Trade in Africa.

LONDON, June 26.—The clergy of the Evangelical church, says a Berlin dispatch, are very generally opposed to the proposal to raise by lottery 8,000,000 marks for the work of suppressing the slave trade in Africa, the ground of opposition being that the lottery would do a vast deal of evil in Germany. This stand against lottery is a surprise to many, and especially to the government officials, who had not counted on any sentiment of the kind when the idea was suggested.

It is a fact, however, that for several years there has been a steadily growing sentiment adverse to all forms of gambling, including the lottery, and that many of the clergy have repeatedly warned their flocks to abstain from buying lottery tickets. The sale of such tickets is, however, still extensive in Berlin and the large cities in Germany, and is said to be a leading cause of poverty among the working classes.

In the army the soldiers invest a large portion of their pay in lotteries, although very few ever win prizes. A good deal of wonder is expressed that the kaiser should favor a lottery for any object, as he has set himself severely against gambling, and only last week quoted to Count Stolberg a remark of the great Napoleon to the effect that he could not trust any one who gambled. There is also a feeling that the money to be raised is to be used really for the advancement of German power in Africa under the pretext of putting down slavery.

Marching on Their Enemies.

LONDON, June 26.—Advises from West Africa state that the second German expedition has left the Cameroons river for the interior, to punish natives who destroyed the former expedition. The force is a formidable one, and includes 300 white men and 1,000 friendly natives. They had, however, a powerful enemy to encounter, the hostile chief being capable of putting several thousand well armed warriors in the field. It appears that some of the Germans captured in the former expedition were cruelly tortured before they died, and there is no hope of finding any of them alive. It is believed that by this time the Germans have wreaked a memorable vengeance on the enemy.

The Queen Won't Be There.

LONDON, June 26.—Contrary to a recent report Queen Victoria has no intention of taking the place of the Prince of Wales as escort to the German emperor on the visit of the latter to London. The prince and all the members of the royal family who can attend, except the queen, will be present.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

MAYSLICK.

The oat crop is almost a failure in this section. The grass crop will be short—that is the meadow.

We now, after so much rain, have some lovely weather.

The corn, though a little later than usual, is looking well.

Samuel Raymond has moved to the Whentley property in the east end.

Ben Hall, of Maysville, is now in our midst working at his trade—carpentering.

Work on the Christian church is progressing finely. It will be a handsome structure.

A couple of our ducky dandies had a little wool pulling last Wednesday evening. No one hurt.

Miss Mary Mvill left Wednesday morning to visit her sister Mrs. W. J. Jackson, at Shawhan station.

Harvest is now on in full blast. The wheat crop is reported very fine and will make an average yield.

J. W. Lucas, of Georgetown, the contractor for the Christian church, is here this week stopping at the Stonewall House.

Thomas Lally is making preparation in the near future to have some improvements made to the Joe H. Brown stable.

R. A. Collins, of Williamstown, is superintending the work on the Christian church. He is a very fine mechanic, and the hands hold him in high esteem.

Master Mitchell B. Jackson, son of J. A. Jackson, is spending a few weeks with his grandmother, Mrs. Mary A. Collins, on Cane Ridge, Bourbon county.

Our town is very quiet, though we have a little trade through the day, and of a night the boys come in and make things lively. Two loads of beer a week is about the average.

We are requested to state by Mr. Cook, the beef man, that he will be here every Tuesday and Saturday with a nice line of beef for harvest. Any orders left at the Stonewall House will receive prompt attention.

BLUE LICK SPRINGS.

A grand bicycle tour will be made to this point Sunday, July 5, from this and adjoining counties. One hundred and fifty wheelmen are expected and the party will be entertained at the "Pavilion Hotel."

Friday evening, July 3, the second of the series of summer society hops will occur at "Pavilion Hotel." Select music has been engaged and a fine representation of young society people is expected.

SARDIS.

The ladies of the M. E. Church will furnish a supper, consisting of ice cream, cake and lemonade to all who wish to eat, at Mrs. Bowman's tomorrow evening. All cordially invited.

MT. CARMEL.

There will be preaching at Farrar's school house three nights, beginning to-night at the usual hour.

Preaching at Olivet Sunday at 10:30 a. m. and at Orangeburg at 3 p. m.

I wish the Stewards of Orangeburg and Olivet churches to meet me at Olivet next Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock. J. R. PEETLES.

Cincinnati Tobacco Market.

(Thursday.)

The breaks are large again, but a commoner grade in the main is offered and not many fancy prices are obtained. Prices remain firm and fair, and anything with merit is bringing its value. About the same tone as yesterday is noticed, with perhaps a little less activity in bidding.

Offerings Wednesday, 901 hds, classed as follows: 222 hds Mason County, 85 hds Owen County, 166 hds Pendleton County, 102 Blue Grass, 178 hds Brown County, 41 hds West Virginia and 7 hds Indiana.

Of the 901 hds, 147 sold from $1 to $3.35, 165 from $1 to $5.35, 153 from $5 to $7.95, 66 from $8 to $23.90, 174 from $10 to $14.75, 150 from $15 to $19.75, and 32 from $20 to $24.50.

Offerings so far this week, 1,474 hds, against 1,074 hds previous week.
